Welcome Message

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

It is with great pride and privilege that we present the fourth London Breast Meeting, scheduled for the 7th-9th September 2017.

The London Breast Meeting has established itself as an essential meeting in the academic diary. We are delighted that the 2016 meeting was graced by a fifty-strong faculty of expert speakers, attracting almost 400 international delegates, and was broadcasted live in 4 different languages worldwide.

Year on year we strive to deliver an inspiring and thought-provoking programme in oncological, reconstructive and aesthetic breast surgery.

The 2017 meeting will focus on Innovations and Trends in Aesthetic and Reconstructive Breast Surgery. In addition to the main scientific programme, there will be a parallel agenda for allied healthcare professionals such as breast care nurses and wound care specialists.

This year, we also invite you to submit and present your surgical pearls in the free paper session.

Last but not least, we welcome you to the vibrant and exhilarating city of London. We hope you will give us the opportunity to provide you with a motivating and fulfilling experience in September.

Yours sincerely,

Jian Farhadi & Jaume Masia
Conference Chairs
